

UGFH1001 In Dialogue with Humanity (Cross-institutional)

Required Readings

What are the topic-by-topic reading assignments?

Excerpts will be selected from the following classics. The instructor may subtract from or add to the following list where s/he sees fit, but there should be a general adherence to what is given below. Excerpts from titles not discussed in class can be listed as texts for critical analysis in students' essays.

1. Self and Humanity Capacity

- Plato, The Symposium.
- 《論語》. [The Analects of Confucius.]
- 莊子：《莊子》. [Zhuangzi, Zhuangzi.]

2. Self and Faith

- 《心經》. [The Heart Sutra]
- 《聖經·創世記》. [Genesis, Holy Bible.]
- 《聖經·馬可福音》. [Gospel of Mark, Holy Bible]
- The Qur'an.

3. Self in Social Institutions

- 黃宗羲：《明夷待訪錄》. [Huang Zongzi. Waiting for the Dawn: A Plan for the Prince.]
- Jean-Jacques Rousseau. The Social Contract.
- Adam Smith. The Wealth of Nations.
- Karl Marx. Economic and Philosophic Manuscripts of 1844.

Recommended Readings (if applicable)

The short introduction to each of the texts collected in the textbook for In Dialogue with Humanity, and the study guides provided by the instructor.